From Miss Edith F. Carey's notes regarding the Lenfesteys

- 1503 Collenette Lenfesty, daughter of Collin Lenfesty, was living and of age.
- 1540 Thomas Lenfesty, son of John, and his wife, daughter of Collas Rauff were living.
- 1586 Heirs of Jacquet Ambray and of his wife, daughter of Jean Lenfesty, held land on Fief Longues, St. Saviours.
- 1600 Thomas Lenfesty, son of Pierre, living and of age.
- 1613 Johanne Lenfesty was dead without descendants, and Pierre Lenfesty of St. Saviours, probably her nephew was in possession of part of her property.
- 1620 Thomas Lenfesty, in right of his wife, daughter of Richard Girart held land on Fief Longues, St Saviours.

From the late Miss Edith F. Carey's Essays on Guernsey History.

On St. Briocq "In 1549 we find that it was divided between Collas Vidamour "a cause de sa femme " son of John, and Thomas Lenfesty "a cause de sa femme, son of John, who married 2 sisters, Collinette and Perotyne Rauf respectively, daughters and co-heiresses of Collin Rauf of St. Brioc. Thomas Lenfesty's son, John Lenfesty, bought up most of the Vidamours' share of the property and by his "Bille de Partage", dated 16th May 1589, his eldest son, Nicholas, received "le grande maison de St. Brioc. " His 2nd son Jean Lenfesty received the "maison de St. Saviour" while they divided between them ----- various fields ----- Collas retained in his portion "trois perques devers la chapelle" (ie. the old chapel of St. Brioc). The property seems to have remained for many generations in the Lenfesty family.

The chapel was probably allowed to fall into ruin early in the 16th century. A deed of 3rd Nov. 1549 mentions the sale to Thomas Lenfesty son of John, by Pierre Le Patourel and Noel Lihou "procurers de la frerie Notre Dame fondee en l'Englise parochielle de St. Andry " of a Cabotel of annual wheat rent ----the proceeds to go towards the purchase of arms and ammunition for the defence of Guernsey.
